

ORE OFFICE HOURS

Brief Technical Assistance and Guidance Sessions

About the ORE Office Hours

The Office of Racial Equity (ORE) will host weekly office hours to provide technical assistance and guidance for agencies working to implement a racial equity lens in their policies, programs, and practices. District agencies can sign-up for a 15-minute technical assistance session. ORE office hours support the mandate established by the REACH Act to “(1) develop, provide oversight of, and advance the District’s goal of achieving racial equity” and “advise the Council, the Mayor, and District agencies about racial equity in the District, and recommend policies, programs, or regulations necessary to achieve racial equity.”

Note: We recommend that agencies review the resources on our website before scheduling a meeting. Racial equity tools and guidance documents on the topics below can be found on the ORE website (www.ore.dc.gov) under the Resources tab.

Topics

The topics listed below are not exhaustive. However, agencies can schedule a meeting with ORE to discuss the following topics:

- Racial equity trainings, performance plan strategic initiatives, data standards, meaningful community engagement, vision statement/narratives, racial equity tools, hiring and promotion
